PASTORAL LETTER from the Superintendent

Dear Friends,

Woolaston Methodist Church, a chapel at the southern end of the Forest of Dean, has just celebrated their 150th Anniversary with a wonderful flower festival, which also marked the achievement of updating their premises so as to serve and connect better with their community. Their chapel started perhaps, like many, with a group of local folk inspired by neighbouring or travelling Methodists and their preachers to gather in fellowship, initially in a house, before five members bought some land for £3 18s. On this land in 1867 the chapel was built at a cost of £98 6s, being mostly borrowed money that needed to be paid back at the rate of £3 10s pa. Given the prevailing impetus for mission, the investment and risk paid off, for by the 1890s the chapel had become too small, with by then more than a 100 people were attending on Sunday evenings. They were served by preachers who spent their Sunday hours travelling long distances on foot in order to take the Sunday services within their local Circuit (perhaps putting into context our complaints at times about the distances involved in our present Circuit!).

Consequently, more land was bought and stones laid for an extension on May 8th, 1893. The Dean Forest Mercury reported that people gathered at 3 o'clock, for "a most earnest and practical address by Revd R Lush of Pillowell" (hopefully all our preaching is still "earnest and practical"!). Then, "about 150 sat down to a most enjoyable tea provided in the meadow adjoining the chapel, and this was followed by a most enthusiastic open - air meeting, which upwards of 250 persons attended. A report of the day's proceedings was read by the indefatigable treasurer, Mr C.A. Higgs." It seems that then, as now, we always needed 'indefatigable treasurers', and indeed all who help to steward and maintain our churches!

It can be appropriate and inspiring sometimes to revisit and celebrate our past, and to celebrate the achievements of the present, even in the midst of the challenges we face today. These challenges may be similar, or different, to those faced by our forebears, but in the end, are our challenges any greater than those experienced by our predecessors? For us, as for them, the invitation remains to trust in God, to keep on 'repenting' (turning our lives around, growing in faith and understanding, grace and goodness), and to keep on trying to learn and put into action what it is to truly love God and our neighbours, in order to reflect the love that God has for all.

As we approach and begin another Connexional year, working and living out our vision and mission, in all the details as well as in the big picture, and in the continuities as well as sometimes in the necessary changes, may we be open to discovering again and again that the God who adores us all, whom in turn we are invited to adore, is - our faithful, unchangeable friend,

whose love is as great as his power,
and neither knows measure nor end.

(Joseph Hart, STF 67; HAP 277)

God Bless, James

PREACHER NEWS

We are delighted to welcome amongst us two Methodist Ministers. Revd Michelle Ireland will have pastoral responsibility for Aylburton, Clements End, Coalway, Lydney and Woolaston Methodist Churches, and is joining us from her previous appointment in the North East, Somerset and Bath Circuit; and the Revd Jayne Webb who comes to us from the Basingstoke and Reading Circuit and will have pastoral responsibility for Apperley, Hartpury, Tewkesbury, Tibberton and who will also be the Methodist contact Minister for Newent St Mary's LEP.
