PASTORAL LETTER from the Superintendent

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

I'm writing this at the beginning of May, later this week we expect the government to announce what the closure of the Covid-19 lockdown might begin to look like. In the midst of all the uncertainty we can be confident that it will be phased and it will take time. We are not going to return to the pattern of church life that we were familiar with at the beginning of this year. Many people talk about a "new normal". I also heard one commentator talking about the health service having "pressed the reset button". He was saying that during the crisis new patterns of work had been developed that would be carried into the future and there would not be a return to some of the old patterns of working.

In the Christian year we are in the gap between Easter and Pentecost. For the followers of Jesus it was a time of waiting and also a time of uncertainty. They knew that Jesus was alive and that he promised to be with them. They did not know the future that God had in store for them but they had been given instruction that they should wait for God's power to come upon them and that would mean things would be different.

Perhaps we can see the lockdown and its phased lifting as a time of waiting in which we have the space to discern the new things that God is saying to us and wanting to change amongst us. It's worth us using the space to pause and ask ourselves what have we learned during this time.

We have discovered that worship always remains at the very heart of the people we are. Although we have been unable to meet for services and been deprived of Holy Communion, we have had a real sense of being part of a worshipping community, as we have used services at home and have joined in Zoom services and other "virtual" acts of worship. In these services we have experienced God's Grace. Making space to focus on God will always be the core of everything that we do.

Over the past six weeks pastoral visitors and ministers have been in touch with people who are either on the fringe of the church or who have nothing to do with the church normally. They have been delighted to receive this pastoral contact. Pastoral care as a means of evangelism; reaching out to people with the love of Christ continues to be foundational to our life.

Rightly we said that churches could be opened if they were to be used for reaching out to the most vulnerable people in our society. In Stonehouse the church is used as a central point for The Long Table project to deliver meals to people throughout Gloucestershire. Serving our neighbours means giving priority in our activities to being with the most vulnerable, listening to their stories and being prepared to be transformed by them. The question of why we have our buildings and how we use them too, is an urgent one.

While we must be aware of those who have no access to the Internet, the way in which information technology has enabled us to be together and reach people in considerable numbers is a reminder that there is a lot of work that we can do to engage in digital evangelism.

As we find ways of coming back together physically and using our buildings again, we need to be open to the Holy Spirit of God doing a reset in the life of our church as we reflect carefully and critically about what we have discovered while in lockdown.

Grace, mercy and peace to you.

John

Superintendent Minister

PREACHER AND CHURCH NEWS

Over the last year the faithful congregation of Lydney have reflected prayerfully upon their mission and they believe that God's current purpose for them has been fulfilled. Therefore when possible they will hold their final service of thanksgiving to God. As individuals they will seek to join new places of worship and continue to spread the Good News of Jesus. Please hold them in your prayers.

We offer our thanks and good wishes to those who are leaving us; the Rev'd Jayne Taylor, URC Minister at Cirencester Ashcroft, Fairford and South Cerney and the Rev'd Mary Jolly, a supernumerary minister who has transferred into the Birmingham District nearer her home.

We give our thanks to Revd Frank Topping (Supernumerary Minister) and to Revd Lionel Jamieson (URC Visiting Preacher) who have both taken the difficult decision to step down from leading public worship. We offer our thanks for their years of service and witness.

We welcome to the circuit the Rev'd Wendy Tucker, new Methodist Minister taking responsibility for Cirencester Ashcroft, Fairford and South Cerney; and to Rev'd Rachel Hope, the new Methodist minister with responsibility for Amberley, Chalford Hill, Randwick, Stonehouse and Stroud St Alban's. We are grateful that Rev'd Simon Topping will continue to take responsibility for Brimscombe in a part-time capacity, while discussions on their future role continues. These changes to appointments will hopefully take place at the beginning of September, depending on restrictions caused by the Covid-19 pandemic.

We were saddened to hear of the deaths of Rev'd William (Bill) Farrell, a retired Supernumerary Minister, and of Ruth Brindle, a Local Preacher who worshipped at Quedgeley, and Ken Sollars, a Local Preacher in the Forest of Dean. Bill was ordained as a minister in 1949 and held appointments in Rochdale, Blackburn, Huddersfield, Whaley Bridge, Alston and Thirsk. Bill and his late wife Edna moved to Cheltenham on his retirement in 1983 to be closer to their children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren. Ruth qualified as an active preacher in 1962 and led worship across the former Gloucester Circuit until ill-health forced her to make the difficult decision to retire as an active preacher. Ken had been a Local Preacher since 1953. A true forester who served the Church and his Lord through his preaching, poems and humour. We hold Bill, Ruth and Ken's families in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.
