PASTORAL LETTER from the Superintendent

April 2021

*The best of all is,
God is with us*

A few weeks ago, a massive smiley appeared over the skies of Gloucester. People often wish that God would speak to them with the same clarity as a message in the sky.

In the Bible, Moses was given a burning bush, Isaiah a vision in a temple and an angel came to Mary and her cousin Elizabeth. They all knew with absolute clarity what God was calling them to do.

Jesus' way of dealing with people reminds us that regardless of our race, social background or sexual identity every one of us is called by God to a life in which our identity as daughters and sons of God is cherished and celebrated. Jesus invites us to be the people that we were born to be - that is a vocation, or calling, we all share.

Those characters from the Bible remind us that God calls individuals to be part of God's work in the world. God calls each of us to a particular ministry. Finding out what can be a long struggle. Henry Newman wrote "God has created me to do Him some definite service; He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next."

In the absence of messages in the sky how do you know what God is calling you to do and to be?

- Is there a need you could do something about?
- Do you feel passionate about something?
- Are other people encouraging you to do something?
- Do you have gifts and graces that might meet a particular need?

The Biblical characters remind us that with God, saying "Not me, I am not good enough." does not work because God looks for willingness and obedience.

God's work takes place in the life of the world. So, our obedient response to God's call can be to a particular job, voluntary work or involvement in politics. It can be about getting stuck into a campaign for justice, peace or care for creation. What happens in the life of the church should support this, so people do need to hear the call to lay ministries of preaching, caring, and administration as well as to be ordained.

The question is not "Is God calling you?" but rather "What is God calling you to?" This is something you could talk and pray about with your minister.

Revd John Hellyer

PREACHER AND CHURCH NEWS

We welcome Rev'd Esther Mason to our circuit as the new Baptist Minister at Christchurch Nailsworth; Trevor Wills, a Local Preacher in Training 'On Trial', who has joined us from the Kennet and Test Valley circuit and Sue Burnham, member of Stonehouse, who will be training as a Local Preacher in Training 'On Note'. We wish Esther and her family well settling into their new home and both Trevor and Sue well with their studies.

We give our thanks to Rev'd Stuart Radford for his years of service as minister at Christchurch Nailsworth, and to Rev'd John Beardsley who has decided to step down from his role as Circuit Archivist. Sue Woodward, member of Hucclecote Methodist Church and fellow Circuit Archivist, has kindly agreed to take on the work as well as continuing with her own. We offer our thanks to Stuart and John for their many years of service and work.

We hold in our thoughts Local Preachers Eileen Beardsley and John Rainbow, who have both taken the difficult decision to 'retire' from active preaching. We thank them for their years of service, commitment and witness and wish them every blessing for the future.

We were saddened to report the deaths of Rev'd John Turner and of Mrs Rosemary Sheldon. John was a supernumerary minister ordained in 1956 who passed away on 6 April. He was superintendent minister in the Tewkesbury and Cheltenham circuit from 1991 to 1996 with pastoral charge of St Mark's, Hawling, Whaddon, Shipton Olife and Andoversford and was a much loved minister. He retired to live in Cheltenham with his wife Barbara and had been worshipping at Bethesda. Our thoughts and prayers are with Barbara and their family and friends as we give thanks for John and rejoice that he is with the Lord he loved and served. Rosemary was a Local Preacher in this circuit since 1993 who passed away on 3 March. She preached in the old Gloucester circuit and was a member of Christchurch Abbeydale. Although an accredited local preacher in the Methodist Church, Rosemary also preached in the United Reformed Church and served as chaplain at Gloucester Cathedral. Rosemary will be remembered for her work as a local preachers' tutor and the encouragement she gave to those in training, together with helping establish the 'Jigsaw Choir'; bringing together singers from various churches to lead choral services. We give thanks for the life of Rosemary and remember all those who knew her in our prayers.

During this quarter some of our ministers will be taking their sabbatical: Rev'd Naomi Cooke from 1 April to 30 June, Rev'd Sue Peat (with annual leave) from 1 May to 16 August and Rev'd John Kime (with annual leave) from 1 May to 31 August.

PREACHING APPOINTMENTS AND MAKING THE PLAN

Many thanks to all those who have offered appointments this quarter, to everyone involved in the making of the plan, and for all the help leading, stewarding and supporting of worship in our Circuit.

We are grateful to the people who prepare “At Home” Services. You are requested to send a transcript to the Circuit Office by the Tuesday before the service is due to appear on the Circuit YouTube page so that it can be printed by those who need to post it to people around the Circuit. The video needs to be sent to the Circuit Office by Friday morning. Support is available from Andrew Biggs, Phil Summers and Michelle Ireland.

If you are unable to fulfill an appointment it is your responsibility to find an accredited substitute and inform the Superintendent or Circuit Office and the relevant church steward of the change. Should you be unable to take your appointment because of significant illness, medical or other emergency in the days before an appointment, please contact the Circuit Office who will endeavour to help you find a substitute.

Chrestos will be open for preachers to submit their availability for the Autumn 2021 Plan (September, October and November) on Tuesday 1 June. The deadline for completion of this is Thursday 1 July. Please can all church stewards ensure that any service requests, arrangements and any visiting preacher details are sent direct to their ministers by Tuesday 6 July so they can complete their section’s arrangements and requirements by Tuesday 13 July. Thank you.

Blessings, John
