PASTORAL LETTER from the Superintendent

August 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Luke's gospel gives us an insight into Jesus' attitude to money and material possessions. He had committed himself to travelling towards Jerusalem and shifted the focus of his ministry away from Galilee. In this phase of his ministry, he lived in the knowledge that his religious and political opponents would conspire together to have him killed.

It was in this setting he challenged people to a way of life that mirrored his self-giving love and sat loose to possessions, reputation and many relationships. During this time, he told several stories about money. The parable of the good Samaritan suggests that he approved of people using their money well. The story of the wealthy landowner who foolishly built new barns to store a bumper crop without a thought for God or anyone else suggests that we are accountable to one another and ultimately to God for the way in which we use our material possessions.

We can set these stories alongside the way in which Jesus is introduced in Luke's gospel by the song his mother sang in which she reflected on the royal rule of God that Jesus would invite people to live under. "He has filled the hungry with good things and sent the rich away empty." Much of Jesus ministry focussed on the needs of the poorest in society and in sitting alongside them he made no distinction between the deserving and the underserving because he lived out of an economy of grace.

This represents a significant challenge at the best of times, but in the current cost of living crisis the call to discipleship makes even greater demands. Although all of us will be affected it is those who are on the lowest incomes who will feel the consequences of dramatically increased costs of fuel and food. As well as supporting Foodbanks and offering food for children during school holidays we might need to consider opening our building so people have somewhere warm to go in the winter.

Living out of an economy of grace is a call to generosity, a challenge to live more simply and an invitation to sit beside the most vulnerable and allow them to speak and let their lives and priorities challenge us. This call comes to us as individuals and as a society. We are right to call for economic policies that address the needs of the most vulnerable in the short and the long term that are developed out of a process of deep listening.

We also need a conversation about money in the church. The combined effects of the pandemic and the cost of living crisis show that the financial model on which our churches have operated is not working. Some of our churches are struggling to balance their commitments. If together we are to live out of an economy of grace that means a reassessment of what we do with money we have in reserve, how we raise funds and how we spend them.

I would welcome any reflections on this.

John Hellyer

PREACHER AND CHURCH NEWS

This new connexional year sees changes to our staffing structure as some of our ministers move onto new roles. Revd Jayne Webb's section becomes Apperley, Bishop's Cleeve, Tewkesbury and Winchcombe; Revd Rachel Leather's section changes to Bethesda, Hawling, North Cerney Fellowship and St Marks; Revd Wendy Tucker's section will include Cirencester, Fairford, South Cerney and Tetbury. The ministers and lay workers working in Gloucester will be working to develop a team approach to ministry. Revd John McNeill will have primary responsibility for Churchdown, Lonsdale Road and Quedgeley. Revd John Hellyer will have primary responsibility for St John's which includes the Tibberton, and Barton Street fellowships and we welcome Revd Barry Bishop, a Supernumerary Minister in our circuit, who takes primary responsibility for Hucclecote.

It is with sadness that we report the death of Ted Stanton, a long-standing member of St Mark's and former circuit representative for Methodist Homes for the Aged (MHA). Ted passed away on 1 June leaving his wife Pat and many family members. We hold Pat and the rest of their family in our thoughts at this time.

We were saddened to hear of the death of Jane Doggett; a retired Local Preacher accredited in 2004 and member of Hucclecote Methodist Church. We give thanks for the life of Jane and remember her family and friends in our prayers.

We hold in our thoughts Local Preacher Beryl Amos, who has taken the difficult decision to 'retire' from active preaching. We thank Beryl for her years of service, commitment and witness and wish her every blessing for the future.

In this quarter we see change at Hartpury and Winchcombe Methodist churches. After much reflection and prayer, the members of Hartpury made the difficult decision to close with their last service being held on 28 August 2022. The members of Winchcombe have also been considering their future in the church building and have decided to leave and dispose of their chapel but continue as a society worshipping at the nearby community centre. The last service at Winchcombe Methodist Church will be held on 16 October 2022. We hold the members of Hartpury and Winchcombe in our thoughts as they navigate through these changes.
