PASTORAL LETTER from the Superintendent, Revd Jayne Webb

Summer 2026

Dear Friends,

During this summer plan we arrive at Ordinary Time. It carries none of the drama of Advent longing or Easter proclamation, and yet it is here that the deeper work of God so often takes root.

What we call “ordinary” is, of course, anything but. The term simply means “ordered” time—the steady, faithful unfolding of life with God beyond the great festivals. It is the season in which discipleship is lived out in the gentle, repeated rhythms of prayer, service, conversation, and presence. If the great seasons of the Church year are like mountain peaks, then Ordinary Time is the landscape in which we actually dwell, the fields and paths we walk day by day.

June, July, and August bring with them a different pace. There is a softening at the edges of our life together. Congregations thin as holidays begin, diaries loosen their grip, and something of the urgency that often drives us through the year begins, quite naturally, to ease. Rather than resisting this, there may be wisdom in receiving it as a gift.

This final quarter before the new connexional year offers us a kind of threshold space, a breathing space. It isn't an ending as such, but neither is it yet the beginning of what lies ahead. It is a time to stand, as it were, on the in-between ground. To look back with gratitude. To notice where life has been stirring beneath the surface. And to listen, gently and without pressure, for the quiet promptings of the Spirit.

In a culture that so often equates fruitfulness with activity, Ordinary Time reminds us that growth is frequently hidden, slow, and organic. Seeds germinate beneath the soil long before anything is visible. Roots deepen in unseen ways. And so too in the life of the Church, this can be a season of abiding rather than striving.

August, in particular, may offer a slightly wider space for this. As the tempo of church life slows, there is an invitation. This may be to allow space for contemplation, for deeper noticing, perhaps even for rest that is more than simply the absence of work, but a returning to what truly sustains us.

And then, almost quietly, September approaches. The connexional year begins again, and with it the call to renewed energy, vision, and engagement in mission. But how we enter that season is important. If we arrive already depleted, we simply carry forward the same patterns. If, however, we have allowed this “ordinary” time to do its gentle work within us, to restore, to clarify and to ground, then we may find ourselves stepping forward from presence rather than pressure.

So perhaps these summer months are not so much a gap in the life of the Church, but rather a necessary rhythm within it. A time to breathe, to listen, and to dwell more deeply in the God who is both present in the extraordinary moments, and also quietly at home in the ordinary. And in that, there is grace enough for all that lies ahead.

With Blessings for a restful summer,

Jayne

Rev Jayne Webb - Superintendent, Gloucestershire Circuit

NEWS

We say farewell to Revd Dr John McNeill at the end of this quarter. John came to us in September 2019 from the North of Scotland Mission Circuit and has pastoral responsibility for Churchdown, Hucclecote and Lonsdale Road. John leaves us to become Superintendent of the Weston Super Mare and Burnham on Sea Circuit, with his farewell service being held at 3pm on Sunday 5 July at Hucclecote Methodist Church.

Services at Lonsdale Road are shown on the plan following their move to their new home in St Oswald's Retirement Village. Services are held weekly at the slightly later time of 11am and everyone is welcome. We send prayers to Lonsdale Road as they embark on this new journey.

We are delighted three members of Stroud St Alban's have chosen to begin the journey of becoming a Worship Leader. Ingram Rose, Paul Summersby and Louise Thomas have started the training programme and join Jane Gray Wallis (Wotton under Edge, also in training), and Beth Guttridge (St Mark's), Val Ralston (Churchdown), Sue Marsland (Wotton under Edge) and Malcom Brader (Abbeydale) as accredited Worship Leaders. We wish Ingram, Paul and Louise well with their training.

The next Circuit Assembly will be held at Tewkesbury Methodist Church on Sunday 14 June, beginning at 3pm with the business of the circuit and ending with tea and then a service at 6pm. The meeting is open for anyone to attend to hear and join in the discussion of the work and business of the Circuit.

We thank those Visiting Preachers who have kindly agreed to preach in our circuit during the Summer Quarter. Their contact details can be found in this plan, details for all other preachers are in the Circuit Directory.
