PASTORAL LETTER from the Superintendent, Revd Jayne Webb

Autumn 2026

Dear Friends,

As I write this letter, the temperature outside is climbing towards record levels. Schools have closed their doors, travel has been disrupted, and many of us are seeking shade, water, and a little relief from the heat. It is difficult to ignore the growing reality that the climate of our planet is changing.

For Christians, this is not simply a scientific or political conversation. It is also a spiritual one.

The opening chapters of Genesis remind us that the earth is God's gift. Before it became a resource to be managed, it was a garden to be tended; and before it became an asset to be consumed, it was declared 'very good' by its Creator. Throughout Scripture we encounter a God who delights in creation: in rivers and mountains, birds and trees, harvests and vineyards. The psalmist sees the whole earth as filled with God's glory, while Jesus himself points us to lilies of the field and birds of the air as teachers of trust and wonder.

At times, conversations about the environment can leave us feeling overwhelmed. The scale of the challenge is immense, and the constant flow of alarming news can tempt us either towards despair or towards avoidance. Neither response is particularly fruitful.

Christian hope offers another way.

Hope is not wishful thinking. Nor is it the denial of reality. Hope is the conviction that God has not abandoned the world that God loves. It is the confidence that even small acts of faithfulness matter. Every tree planted, every habitat protected, every reduction in waste, every careful use of resources, every conversation that helps others to care more deeply for creation becomes an act of discipleship.

As a circuit we have already committed ourselves to this journey through our Eco Policy and our partnership with A Rocha. These are not merely administrative commitments; they are expressions of our faith. They are ways of living out our calling to love God, our neighbours, and the generations who will inherit the world we leave behind.

This summer's heatwave may serve as a reminder that the work before us is both urgent and important. Yet it is also an opportunity to deepen our gratitude for the beauty and fragility of the world around us. The answer to ecological crisis is not fear alone but love: love for God's creation, love for one another, and love for the Creator whose presence shines through all things.

As we enjoy the long days of summer, may we take time to notice the gifts that surround us—the song of birds in the early morning, the shade of a tree, the blessing of rain when it comes, the abundance of fields and gardens. And having noticed them, may we recommit ourselves to their care.

For the earth is not ours alone. It is God's gift, entrusted to us for a time, to cherish, protect, and pass on.

Every blessing,

Jayne

Rev Jayne E. Webb

Co Superintendent Minister

NEWS

We offer our congratulation to those preachers who have received Long Service certificates during 2026: Trevor Allan and Colin Pasoe (40 years), Ron Green, Philip Hyne and Mike Potts (60 years). We thank Trevor, Colin, Ron, Philip and Mike for their work, witness and worship throughout the years.

We congratulate Sue Burnham, Local Preacher on Trial, on her marriage to Alex Warmesley. Sue now appears on the plan using her married name of Walmsley. We also offer our congratulations to Trevor Wills, Local Preacher, on his recent marriage. We wish both Sue and Trevor a very happy and joyful life with their partners.

We welcome Andy Skitt, Local Preacher, who has come to live in our circuit from Shropshire and The Marches circuit and who will be preaching at some of our churches in this quarter. We wish Andy well in his new home.

We welcome the return of Revd Dr Simon Topping into our circuit. Simon takes up a new post with District from 1 September as Faith-Rooted Community Organiser District Lead and will be working with local churches and circuits to help them connect with their local communities on issues of common concern in areas relating to social injustice.

The online Worship At Home services has served its purpose and come to an end. Thanks are given to Alan and Alison Jackson, Colin Pascoe, Trevor Wills and Karen Burrridge for their hard work and efforts in producing these. We are aware a number of churches currently offer their own zoom or streaming of services and we will look to advertise these in this quarter.

The next Circuit Assembly will be held in Stroud St Alban's on Sunday 13 September. In a change from previous meetings, we will start at 3pm with a Circuit Service, before moving onto the business of the circuit and ending with tea and an opportunity to re-connect with others. Everyone is welcome to hear and join in the service and discussion on our work.

We thank those Visiting Preachers who have kindly agreed to preach in our circuit during the Summer Quarter. Their contact details can be found in this plan, details for all other preachers are in the Circuit Directory.
