PASTORAL LETTER from the Superintendent

January 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

All are welcome,

All are welcome,

All are welcome in this place.

Singing the Faith 409

It is hard to disagree with these words in the hymn written by Marty Haugen. For Methodists whose core conviction is that God's love can reach out to and transform the lives of every human being without exception, the commitment to being an "Inclusive Church" is a part of our DNA. We believe that all are created in God's image, and all are one in Jesus Christ.

We have a long history of advocating for social justice and challenging injustice. The first women presbyters were ordained in 1974, a year before the Sex Discrimination Act (1975) was passed. The Conference first passed resolutions on racial justice in 1962, long before the introduction of the Race Relations Act (1976).

As a Church we have made significant progress across all protected characteristics as stated under the Equalities Act 2010 and Equality, Diversity and Inclusion. However, today the issue of race, sexuality, gender and disability discrimination is still a major challenge for the Church. In becoming an "Inclusive Church" where all are truly welcome there will need to be a significant transformation, which will include organisational, structural and cultural changes.

Another Methodist characteristic is that we want to do better because we know that we have got it wrong too often. We know that with the help of God's Spirit we can become more Christ-like in our relationships. In working towards being an "Inclusive Church" that means recognising that issues of Equality, Diversity and Inclusion cannot be another optional item on a busy agenda but need to be an integral part of our life together.

What is an "Inclusive Church"? Here is a possible definition for the Methodist Church.

- Welcomes in safety all who wish to be part of the life of the Church whether through worship, learning and caring, service or evangelism.
- Upholds the discipline of the Methodist Church in the face of discrimination, rejecting and resisting all behaviours which are discriminatory or belittling.
- Celebrates diversity in the variety of God's creation.
- Represents the diversity of the Methodist Church throughout its life and structures and affirms that there is no place for discrimination in our processes of selection, discernment and appointment.

I encourage all the churches in the Circuit to consider registering with the Inclusive Church network (Inclusive Church \(inclusive-church.org\)) as a way of expressing commitment to working towards being places "where love can dwell and all can safely live." (StF 409).

With every blessing,

Revd John Hellyer

PREACHER AND CHURCH NEWS

We were saddened to report the death of Alan Morgan, a former Local Preacher known to many across the circuit who was accredited in 1957. A retired teacher and history enthusiast, Alan worshipped at St John's Northgate and preached at many churches throughout our circuit until his move with his wife Hazel to Bedfordshire to be nearer family. Alan passed away peacefully following a brief illness surrounded by their family. We hold Hazel and the rest of their family in our thoughts at this time.

We hold in our thoughts Local Preacher Ros Burnip, accredited in 1985 and who has taken the difficult decision to 'retire' from active preaching. We thank Ros for her years of service, commitment and witness and wish her every blessing for the future.

We send our thoughts and prayers to all those in our circuit struggling with illness, bereavements and other difficult issues. Many people also continue to feel anxious and uncertain about the future. Some struggle with technology and the events of the last two years have opened up new ways to reach people and stay in touch. We are grateful to all those who have used their gifts to lead worship and support people within our Circuit.
