PASTORAL LETTER from the Superintendent

October 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. (Luke 2 verse 7.)

From the moment of his birth Jesus experienced exclusion. When his parents arrived in Bethlehem they could not find any accommodation, so were forced to depend on the goodwill of others.

Jesus' birth opened a whole new understanding of what God is like. Although in all sorts of ways people said to him "There is no room for you." His response was to demonstrate that God makes room for all of us. Later in life and in response to God's call he chose to take up a way of life that put him and many of his followers on the edges of society. He had friends and people who gave him material support but his focus was to get alongside others who were excluded from the main streams of society.

This Christmas, as part of the Methodist Church, we are being encouraged to try to demonstrate our open, inclusive and welcoming nature by saying to all people that "There is room" for you.

Jesus shows in his ministry how that can be done. Most of his work was done by going out into public places, where ordinary people gathered, to preach and to heal. He accepted invitations to go to parties where he met people in the places where they felt comfortable. It was in those places that he listened to them, challenged them and met them at their deepest point of need. He opened channels for God's all-embracing love to flow into people's lives.

Christmas is still a time when people come to special events like crib and carol services. They give us an opportunity to demonstrate that "There is room" by the hospitality that we offer. People will also come into churches because they provide warm spaces and to access foodbanks. In these encounters with people, we can try to offer the inclusive welcome that Jesus gave to people.

The real work of Christmas is done when we take the risk of following Jesus out of the places where we feel comfortable to the places where we can share in the vulnerability of others and need to depend on receiving their insights, wisdom and hospitality. It is in these encounters that God's grace can become real and lives transformed.

Beyond these walls of worship in the stress and joys of life
Can we offer you our bodies
as a living sacrifice?
Will we keep you at the centre
far beyond the Sunday call?
Will we turn to you,
be transformed by you;
Still declare you God of all?

(StF 547) Ian Worsfold and Paul Wood

With every blessing,
John Hellyer
Superintendent Minister

PREACHER AND CHURCH NEWS

We offer a warm welcome to Islay Roberts, a Local Preacher from the North Wiltshire Circuit who has recently relocated to Bishop's Cleeve. It is hoped Islay will come onto the plan in the spring quarter and his contact details have been added to the online Circuit Directory.

We are saddened to hear that Mrs Frances Goodwin, a retired Local Preacher, died on 1 October at the age of 92. Francis had been a Local Preacher for many years and was the Local Preachers Secretary at one time. Ill health meant Francis had not preached for some time however people remembered her preaching with admiration. Francis died peacefully at home, surrounded by her family, listening to scripture and singing choruses that the family had always sung together. Her funeral on 19 October was well attended by her large family and many friends from Ashcroft Church and beyond. The eulogies spoke of her deep faith that she passed on to so many over the years in her teaching, church youth work, preaching and simply the way she lived her life. She is survived by her husband of 70 years Maurice (still an active Trustee of Ashcroft and U3A teacher of computing and Tai Chi at 92).
